HUACHUCA CITY MAN SENTENCED TO 10 YEARS IN PRISON FOR METH DISTRIBUTION AND CONSPIRACY

TUCSON, Ariz. – Gary Lee Holman, 56, of Huachuca City, Ariz., was sentenced here yesterday to 10 years in prison by U.S. District Judge Frank R. Zapata. After serving his 10 year sentence, Holman will be placed on supervised release for five years.

Holman was arrested in November 2001 and indicted for Possession with Intent to Distribute Methamphetamine and Conspiracy to Distribute Methamphetamine in violation of Title 21, U.S. Code, Sections 846 and 841(a)(1), along with 15 co-defendants, the majority of whom came from the greater Sierra Vista, Ariz. area.

Holman pleaded guilty on June 14, 2005. In connection with his guilty plea, Holman admitted that he and others had obtained and distributed multi-ounce quantities of methamphetamine in Sierra Vista, Ariz. on a weekly basis during most of 2001.

The investigation in this case was conducted by DEA in conjunction with the Bisbee Police Department, Sierra Vista Police Department, Cochise County Sheriff's Department and the Gang Interdiction Team Enforcement Mission (GITEM).

The prosecution was handled by Carin C. Duryée, Assistant U.S. Attorney, District of Arizona, Tucson, Ariz.
